

DR2012-004 is a revision of the water supply overlay district sections of the zoning resolution.

“1804A.03.2 Denver Basin aquifers, not exceeding 50 percent of the total annual appropriable water supply contained within the Denver Basin aquifers underlying the subject land.”

Add : available for dedication to the application. The water rights in all Denver Basin aquifers shall be reserved in perpetuity, for the benefit of future landowners within the proposed development, pursuant to a declaration of restrictive covenants in a form prescribed by the County.

“1808A.01 When service is proposed by a District, the applicant shall submit documentation of the District’s ability to serve, the amount of water available, and the feasibility of extending service.”

Add: and a copy of any Board of Director’s resolution establishing minimum water standards for the District.