BYLAWS AND ELECTION RULES AMENDMENTS

New language in italics, deleted language ~~struckthrough~~

Suggested Bylaws change to the definition of a Quorum for Board meetings
– adopted April 22, 2015

RWADC Bylaws, Article V.

Section 5. Quorum

Only when a quorum of more than half of the sitting members of the Board is present shall Board business be conducted, ~~except in the case when a 2/3 super-majority vote of the entire Board is required.~~

Changing the Bylaws is one of the matters requiring a 2/3 super-majority vote of the directors in office at a meeting held after 2 weeks' notice. This is the second reading of this Bylaws amendment, as required by RWADC Bylaws Article V, Section 8:

Any matter requiring a super-majority may only be approved after being considered and approved at two consecutive meetings, the second of which may be continued for further consideration.
