The district's research and retrieval fee is per hour

District Policy

After the first hour of time expended in connection with the research and retrieval of public records, the Official Custodian is authorized to charge a fee, the maximum of which shall not exceed the fee set forth in Section 24-72-205 (b), C.R.S., as amended from time to time for the costs incurred to review public records requests, prepare documents for inspection, consultation with legal counsel or other consultants regarding such requests, to supervise and coordinate preparation, review and copying of public records, and for actual costs incurred by Official Custodian, District, District Management, outside consultants and legal counsel in responding to and complying with public record requests.

All requests for copies or inspection of public records of the District shall be submitted to the Official Custodian in writing. Such requests shall be delivered by the Official Custodian to the District's legal counsel for review and legal advice regarding the lawful availability of records requested and related matters. The District may, from time to time, designate specific records for which written requests are not required and with respect to which review by legal counsel is not required; i.e. service plans, rules and regulations, minutes, etc. Such designations shall occur in the minutes of the meetings of the District.

All public records of the District copied and provided to interested persons shall be copied in duplicated by the Official Custodian. The Official Custodian shall retain the original record in the appropriate file, and shall retain the duplicate copies in a separate filing bearing the name of the person to whom copies were provided and the date of such person's request. Copies of duplicated copies of public records of the District shall not be charged to the person requesting the public records, but shall be maintained for record purposes by the Official Custodian.
